

Mid West Lawyers is an independent law firm specialising in agribusiness law. With its senior lawyers being direct relatives of several generations of pastoralists in WA, Mid West Lawyers is delighted to be aligned with the PGA as a sponsor.

Based in Geraldton and with an office in Perth, Mid West Lawyers advises clients throughout Western Australia on various agribusiness legal matters.

In 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021 Mid West Lawyers was independently ranked by Doyle's Guide as a "Leading Agribusiness Law Firm – Western Australia".

In 2019, 2020 and 2021, Principal of Mid West Lawyers, Tim Hayter, was independently ranked by Doyle's Guide as a "Preeminent Agribusiness Lawyer – Western Australia".

The PGA's members may be interested in utilising the services of Mid West Lawyers in the following areas:

1. Native Title advice concerning access and compensation agreements;
2. Pastoral Lease advice concerning sales, transfers, carbon trading, subleases and
3. dealings with the Pastoral Lands Board;
4. Broadacre farming advice concerning sale of farms, farm leases, livestock leases
5. and share farming agreements;
6. Mining access and compensation agreements;
7. Employment contracts and advice;
8. Structuring and asset protection, including advice on partnerships, corporations and trusts;
9. Wills, Enduring Powers of Attorney and Guardianship;
10. Farm succession planning;
11. Deceased estates and probate, including concerning family provision claims; and
12. Agribusiness disputes and litigation.

PGA's members receive a free initial 10-minute telephone consult and a 10% discount on all legal fees with Mid West Lawyers.

For assistance, contact Principal at Mid West Lawyers, Tim Hayter: 9389 4450 or 0400 166 750
thayter@midwestlawyers.com.au

When emailing, please type the advice area in the subject line (e.g. Native Title compensation - PGA).