More detailed information on the DATAMARS cattle tags below:

For the upcoming quotation season, the PGA in association with Datamars has two NLIS registered tags available to cattle producers.

Datamars Retention Guarantee Triangular tag is an NLIS tag (approved 2007) that was sold into the PGA tender in 2011. It is supplied with A FREE MATCHING MANAGEMENT TAG (worth $1.00 RRP). As well as the PIC and numbering that matches the NLIS tag, another line of printing can be added to the coloured management tag with a station name, or any other numbering or wording up to 16 characters. Retention Guarantee tags (if cattle remain on the original PIC and application conditions are met) carry a retention guarantee for the life of the animal. These are a great option for female “keeper” cattle. Tags can be applied using Allflex applicators or DATAMARS will provide applicators.

Datamars Round NLIS tags (approved 2011) are a high quality NLIS tag competing directly with Allflex in the market. They work with Allflex applicators and have a longer stem and curved base for maximum wound erosion (the most important aspect in achieving good retention rates). These tags are the best, low cost option for exiting cattle to meet compliance requirements.
