

Cattle Council of Australia is looking for the next generation of beef industry leaders. The annual NAB Agribusiness Rising Champions Initiative provides the opportunity for a member of the industry aged between 21 and 35 years to become the youth representative to the Cattle Council and help provide an important perspective to inform policy development and address industry issues.

As the 2014 NAB Agribusiness Beef Industry Rising Champion you will have the opportunity to:

- Attend the Five Nations Beef Alliance conference in the USA in 2014
- Gain insight into the 'big' issues facing the Australian beef industry
- Network with International and Australian beef industry leaders
- Represent the next generation of beef industry leaders

Finalists will also have the opportunity to convene in Canberra to:

- Meet like-minded people passionate about the beef industry
- Work with a Cattle Council mentor to develop personal goals
- Further your understanding of the workings of industry and government
- Travel to Canberra, all expenses paid, to take part in the NAB Agribusiness Rising Champions Initiative
