

The PGA is pleased to announce that Mr John Edwards, Chairman of the WA Live Exporters Association will be speaking at the PGA Wagin Woolarama Sundowner

Mr Edwards will explain the new requirements to export sheep into Middle Eastern markets. The government has named these requirements the “Export Supply Chain Assurance Scheme”. Come and hear John talk about the practical difficulties of getting it up and running.

Friday 19 March at 4.30pm

In the PGA tent

Site 472 near the Recreation centre and Woolarama Office

PGA President Mr Rob Gillam will be available all day to discuss the PGA's involvement in all aspects of rural policy as it affects farmers.

PGA Head Office staff will also be available to assist you.